

Prizes for Reading

Reading takes you places!

Read and earn cool prizes like tattoos, a slinky, super balls or best of all – a brand new book! Here's how: When school lets out, start keeping track of your reading. It takes 3 hours of reading (or being read to) to claim your next prize at the Kids' Desk.

No prizes after August 19th.

*Only one map per summer, please.

Grand Prize: Library Sleepover

If you read 50 hours or more during the Summer Reading Program you will be awarded with the grand prize — a sleepover inside the Library! Deadline to register for the sleepover is Monday, August 8th. The Sleepover will be held Friday, August 12th.

Book Pals

Beginning readers ages 5-9 are paired with trained volunteers ages 10-17 to read together at the library during the summer. A free book is awarded to younger children, and community service hours awarded to older children, who read with their Book Pal for four 40-minute sessions during the summer. Register at the children's desk or on our website.

Start your own Book Club!

Book Buzz Kits include 8-10 copies of a single title, discussion questions, and activity ideas around the book. Kits are now available for checkout for up to 6 weeks. For a list of titles, visit our website <steamboatlibrary.org/kids> or contact the Kid's Desk, 879-0240 x313.

Read to Dogs

Practice reading out loud to a warm and friendly audience — a dog! Read with a trained service dog in the Library on Mondays from 2-4 pm. Contact the Kids' Desk to register, 879-0240 x313.

Kickoff party: Monday June 6 at 3 pm.
